 By Mike and Tillie Groves*

Check out these announcements...

- ✓ The Tuesday Bible Study group meets at 10:30 a.m. Dr. Cynthia Chapman, Associate Professor of Biblical Studies at Oberlin College of Arts and Sciences, engages us through her DVD series, “The World of Biblical Israel.”
- ✓ Everybody thought somebody would but nobody did. Would you? If so, sign up to be an usher or liturgist, or to prepare and serve communion, or to be hospitality host for the day. The sign-up sheets are still posted on the bulletin board in the fellowship area. (And – from All of us, to those who serve – Thank You!)
- ✓ Highland again is encouraging First Grade students to continue developing their reading skills over the summer. We have provided an end-of-school book to each of the 94 first grade students at Magnolia Woods Elementary School. The Hattie Dotson-Handy Memorial Account provided the funds.

Highland’s Collections for Troops

Blue Star Mothers of Louisiana, an organization of mothers of individuals serving in the U. S. Military, sends care packages four to six times a year to troops serving overseas. In June and July, Highland will collect food-item supplies that will be forwarded to the local chapter of Blue Star Mothers. A complete list of items that Blue Star Mothers collect is posted on our collection basket in the fellowship area. While we are focusing on collecting “jerky,” other food items that can be sent include foil-pouch type foods, pop tarts, Raman noodle soup, raisins and other dried fruit. Any contribution to Highland’s basket is appreciated.

CONTACTING PASTOR KELLY. This week Pastor Kelly will be at Highland Tuesday through Thursday. She can be reached by cell (337-849-2212) or by email (lindakelly@cox.net). Next Sunday Pastor Kelly will begin a two-week vacation and will return on Sunday, June 28.
