Check it out ...

- ✓ The regularly scheduled Session meeting will be Tuesday, August 18, at 7:00 p.m. Elders should check their mailboxes for information.
- ✓ Here’s an “app” to check out: PCUSA Daily Prayer App. In addition to daily prayers there are Bible readings – and oftentimes the readings are from Psalms. It’s available for iPhones and Android systems and costs $3. More information is at <http://www.presbyterianmission.org/ministries/worship/daily-prayer/>.
- ✓ Any time is the right time to join the Tuesday morning Bible class. The video lectures of the current series follow stand-alone themes, so one does not depend on the previous ones. They focus on life in Biblical Israel and help to understand what the writers wanted to convey about Israel’s story. Now that the busyness of summer has settled, you are encouraged to join the class for a little intellectual stimulation as we study the Word of God.

Pastor Kelly

This week Pastor Kelly will be in Baton Rouge on her regular schedule, Tuesday through Thursday. On Saturday, August 22, she will lead worship at Grace PC in Lafayette for the Presbyterian Women Fall Rally in the west. Please feel free to contact her by voice or text on her cell phone, 337-849-2212, or by email at lindakelly@cox.net, to advise her of any pastoral needs or concerns.

*Along this journey of faith and life, we discover heartache through death, divorce and disillusionment;
joy through birth, beginnings and breathing in new life;
grace through the forgiveness of the Father; and life itself through the everyday, mundane, ordinary passage of time.*

*Relationships take time, energy, imagination,
risk, courage, authenticity, love and grace.
And so it is with God. . .*

*Take the time to develop your relationship with God
and keep your eyes wide open as you walk along the road of life.
More than likely, you will find that God has been waiting hours to sit down with you.*
