Thought for the Week

“Do not imagine that if you meet a really humble man he will be what most people call 'humble' nowadays: he will not be a sort of greasy, smarmy person, who is always telling you that, of course, he is nobody. Probably all you will think about him is that he seemed a cheerful, intelligent chap who took a real interest in what you said to him. If you do dislike him it will be because you feel a little envious of anyone who seems to enjoy life so easily. He will not be thinking about humility: he will not be thinking about himself at all.

“If anyone would like to acquire humility, I can, I think, tell him the first step. The first step is to realize that one is proud. And a biggish step, too. At least, nothing whatever can be done before it. If you think you are not conceited, it means you are very conceited indeed.”

- C.S. Lewis, from Mere Christianity

Buy-A-Mile for Our July 10-14 Youth Mission Trip to Austin, Texas

So far we have “sold” 335 miles – enough miles for us to get past Houston and Katy, Texas –
but we’re not there yet!
Our goal for this week is to raise enough to arrive in Austin.

What’s in Austin? Our HPC Youth are in the midst of planning a July 10-14 Mission Trip to Austin, Texas, where they will join 100 other youth and adults in a variety of Mission Activities – providing backyard Bible Clubs, assisting with summer children's programs, working with a retirement center, and supporting the work of a crisis pregnancy center for women and teens who need housing and medical care as they work toward independence.

Throughout the week they will be worshipping, working, and sharing with brothers and sisters there in Austin, and it is sure to be a life-changing experience.

You can help! You and other Congregation Members and Friends can sponsor the miles our group travels, at $5 a mile. Consider buying 1 mile or 100 miles (or any amount in between). Every mile helps! Make checks to HPC with “Buy-A-Mile” in the memo line. Thank you for supporting our youth and our brothers and sisters in Austin!
